Jaime's Corner

What a joy it is for Rachelle, me and the Healing Music ministry team (Evelyn and Kim), to wish you and your family a CHRISTmas season, and a 2015 filled with blessings from our Lord!

I want to take this opportunity to apologize for not having sent out the Newsletter for the past 2 quarters. That means it's been 6 months since our last one. Over the last few weeks, I've had a number of people ask what's going on. And though I have no excuse, we have been extremely and unusually busy these past months. This has contributed to my not being faithful and timely about getting the Newsletter put together. But I plan on doing a better job henceforth!

As I write this, I find myself flying home from Israel. You may recall that I made an invitation in the March Newsletter for you to be a part of this tour. Gifted speaker, pastor, writer and professor Andy Nash, who has been taking groups of believers seeking a closer walk with Jesus to the Holy Land for the last few years, invited me to be a part of his tour from Nov. 20-30. I had never been, and everyone I talked to that has gone told me it was an unforgettable experience. This is exactly what my own father had said to me repeatedly, as he has been there a number of times himself. So my interest was piqued.

As Andy and I spread the word, dozens of people began to call in, inquire, and ultimately begin to book their space on our tour. And then some of the worst violence in years broke out. People began to cancel. While I understand, I knew from the get-go, that I could and would never allow fear to stop me from going. On our side was (and IS) the most powerful being in the universe! How could I allow those who are trying to spread hatred and fear to win? Ultimately, we had 45 people in our group.

A spectacular view of old Jerusalem

The Garden of Gethsemani

The tomb of King David

I can honestly tell you that this trip was one of the greatest experiences of my life! Perhaps over the next couple of Newsletters I will share with you, or ask some of our participants to provide additional narrative on our experience. But for now, let me focus on 2:

1. Masada

The year was 1981. Not long after my family arrived from Cuba, I remember watching this epic, 4 part mini-series on television. I was only 11 years old, but it made a profound influence in my life. I didn't know anything about the historical context of this mini-series, but of course I knew that Israel had been God's chosen people, and that Rome had achieved an iron rule over Israel. In AD 70, a group of Zealot Jews escaped the siege of Jerusalem and took up residence in Masada, the royal hideaway fortress built by King Herod the Great (between 37 and 31 BC). It took Roman governor Flavius Silva with 10,000 soldiers, auxiliary units and slaves between 18 months and 3 years to breach the fortress. But when he reached the top, the approximately 1,000 people living there had committed suicide, preferring death at their own hands than slavery and worse at the hands of the Romans.

It was during the airing of the miniseries that I told myself- "one day, I will visit Masada". And so you can imagine how my heart raced when we stepped onto the cable car that brought us up. As I walked around the fortress, I was struck by the grandeur of the surrounding mountains. As big and great as man's work may seem, it is still incomparable to God's magnificence, power and handiwork.

2. Via Dolorosa

As our group walked slowly and quietly down (and sometimes up) the Via Dolorosa, Andy asked me if carrying my violin was becoming burdensome. I told him that it felt like nothing compared to what Jesus must've gone through carrying the cross to his death, after being flogged. When our group went inside St. Anne's Church, in the (supposed) area where the virgin Mary was born, our group sang Amazing Grace, Andy shared a powerful message of reflection, and I played the song Via Dolorosa. During this time, Jesus' sacrifice became more real to me than ever before. When I finished playing, I knelt down and began to cry. I was overcome with sorrow thinking about what Jesus endured because of me, and with joy at the thought that we are so precious that He was willing to give His life so we could have the gift salvation. Hallelujah!

As I close, Rachelle and I invite you to seek and obtain a closer walk with Jesus during this Season. May we focus on Him, and the great privilege we all have to share the Good News with a dark and sin-sick world!

With joy and gladness,

Jaime

GUEST MESSAGE

GEORGE W. BUSH

November 9, 2012

Mr. Jaime Jorge
Ooltewah, Tennessee

Dear Jaime:

Congratulations on your 25th year in Christian music ministry. People of faith have helped shape the culture and character of our Nation by putting their beliefs and values into action. By spreading God's message of boundless love and mercy, you help lift hearts and make our country a more peaceful and hopeful place.

Laura and I send our best wishes on this special occasion. May God bless you, and may God bless our great Nation.

Sincerely,

George W. Bush

Dear Jaime,

I just saw one of your interviews on TV. I appreciated the testimony of your experiences. You have no idea how much your music was a blessing to my father and our family.

About 2 years ago my father was diagnosed with pancreatic cancer. During his last days on this earth, we played your DVD's 24/7 to help calm him down from the constant pain that racked his body. The hymns you played brought him comfort. Even when he slipped into a coma, if we turned off the music he somehow knew it. That's why we played it all the time. (Although my father learned to love violin music, it was only through your expertise that this came about.)

Dad died (date omitted), despite going through chemo therapy.

Please know that you and your music have been an inspiration to all of us.

LA

Greetings,

I first would like to express my heartfelt thanks to Jaime for so faithfully exercising stewardship over the gift(s) God has given him. Each time we hear him, Sue and I say, "He is better than the last time we heard him." I do not know if he'll ever arrive at the place where we can say he's at his best. There are some events that cannot adequately be put into words--a Jaime Jorge concert is one such events. But the greatest thought regarding his time spent with friends and members of Grace Bible Fellowship Church is that he ministered to everyone. There's been a godly buzz all week from those who have been blessed. His love for Jesus is seen as paramount!

Please tell Jaime and Rachelle how much we enjoyed our all-too-brief time together Sunday afternoon. God's blessing to Jamie and Rachelle. I will contact several pastors (of larger churches) personally and forward their names to you. Give me about a week to adequately do this. In Christ,

Dr. GR

Dear Jaime Jorge,

Today I listened to some of your music on YouTube, and I felt the Holy Ghost come upon me. When you play this heavenly music there are mighty Angels of God standing right next to you! Glory to God!!!!
