Jaime's Corner

"How Will God Use You This Christmas and Beyond?"

After an absence (in our newsletter, for which I apologize profusely!) we shall not address, on behalf of my queen Rachelle, our amazing office manager Kim, and the incomparable booking agent Evelyn, we at Healing Music and Jaime Jorge Ministries International want to wish you, your family, loved ones and friends, a MERRY CHRISTMAS, and a blessed 2016!

Though we live in an increasingly secular world, I am amazed at the staggering number of people that want Jesus, even though they don't yet realize it. Part of the reason for this secularism is because, as Christians, we preach more than we practice. As the beautiful song by Peter Scholtes says: "And they'll know we are Christians by our love, by our love..." May we never underestimate the power of our witness, and not just our words!

I was in Bremerton, WA for a concert in early October (the same city that generated headlines for a public High School football coach that prayed on the field), when a young lady approached me just before the worship service began. She said "you are the reason I write music". It was obvious that she was not part of that church, denomination, or community of faith. I was quite taken aback by her statement, for two reasons: 1- of all the comments folks share with me, I had never heard that one before (and believe me, at times I feel like I've heard them all!); and 2- I had never met this young lady before. Nevertheless, she was there and excited about it! And I sensed it!

God's presence was there through the Holy Spirit, and people's lives were touched. After the service, as I greeted the church family, I was able to talk to her once again, but our exchange was brief. I wasn't sure if I would hear from her again, but just after I arrived home from the weekend of concerts, I received an e-mail from her:

Mr Jaime Jorge:

Thank you for taking the time to speak with me today. It was, again, a huge honor to meet you and hear your beautiful music. I will be upfront; I am no Christian, but I was brought to tears by your beautiful playing. I hope you are an open-minded individual and will not be upset at me for withholding this information, as I feared judgement at first. I have always been a fan of your music.

I want to say that I am moved by the fact that God has worked so many wonders in your life. It is truly a blessing to behold. I have been blessed as well. I truly believe Christ can work wonders in people and it is a joy to hear the stories of lives changed. Thank you so much for sharing yours with us today.

Take care and please never stop playing. I am going through a period in my life where I've wondered if I should quit myself and get "a real job", as so many have advised me, but I always knew I couldn't. If you have any advice for me that might help me get through this period in my life, it is welcomed and appreciated greatly and know that it will be taken to heart.

Again, thank you so much. I hope to speak with you soon.

Sincerely, JG

This is an example of many who come and talk to me before or after a concert. But I know there are perhaps even more who never actually come to talk because they're shy, afraid, unsure, or for some other reason. I suspect it's the same way for you: you have people who you come in contact with that you can share the love of Jesus with, but others who you can still impact even though they may not address you directly, or at all.

And so I want to challenge all of us to, during this Christmas Season (YES, the season of CHRIST), ask God specifically to give us opportunities to witness, through our words but even more importantly, our deeds, to people who need Jesus. Now more than ever, we ALL need Jesus! May God use us in a special way in the last month of 2015!

Yours in the blessed ASSURANCE of our Savior,

Jaime

GUEST MESSAGE

"Jaime once again ministered in a powerful way today at GoodNaz! His humble spirit and servant's heart allowed the Holy Spirit to take over and flood the place with anointing and power. Pastors, if you want to experience a powerful anointing of God on your church I would highly recommend having Jaime Jorge come to your church. I would put his ministry in the TOP 5 MOST POWERFUL WORSHIP EXPERIENCES OF MY LIFE. Did I mention what a humble servant of Christ he is? GoodNaz was greatly blessed by the anointing of his ministry today. Great being with he and his wife, Rachelle."

Hello Jaime,

We saw you in —. My son, — was very excited to meet you because he loves your music. He told me when he was listening to you play he felt like he was your biggest fan. My son is autistic. I don't know if you have met a lot of kids on that spectrum, but he is pretty unique. He is very passionate and loving and even counselors have said they've never met a child so caring. When people meet him for the first time they say they can tell he has a heart of gold. What he admired most about you is how much you love Jesus. He talks about Jesus all the time and knows the sacrifice He made for us. Having a relationship with God has helped him make huge hurdles with his disability! Thank you for your ministry. God is good. NH

Dear Jaime,

I heard you perform live at a concert held at the Open Door Bible Church in Raymore, MO with my sister, who lived there in Kansas City, MO.

I lost her back in August 2014, and I have received many CDs that she purchased from you in her collection of your music. How truly touching it is for me to listen to your playing the violin. It is the most unique and deeply felt sound I have ever heard. I will be buying more of your music CD's and love listening to you on YouTube.

Many blessings as God leads you to use your most valuable gift and share it with the world.

With love,
CC
