Jaime's Corner

On behalf of my queen Rachelle, our dedicated and hardworking JJMI and Healing Music team, Kim, Evelyn, Glenn, Nelson and Elias, I want to wish you, your family and loved ones a wonderful Summer, as well as a blessed rest of 2017!

SHALOM! Greetings from the Holy Land! We are excited to be in the land of our Savior Jesus Christ. This is my third trip/tour, and Rachelle's first. We are having an amazing time filled with spiritual renewal and growth, meaningful fellowship with our group of 51 pilgrims, as well as seeing the Bible come alive right before our eyes! 2 days ago, we were on a boat on the Sea of Galilee singing songs and worshipping our Lord. We then visited the place where Jesus said to Peter "cast your nets on the other side" (of the boat). We also went to the Jordan river, where several people chose to renew their commitment to Christ and were re-baptized! Yesterday we floated on the Dead Sea. This morning we visited the fortress of Masada, and then we made our way to Jerusalem to visit the Via Dolorosa, Golgotha, the Garden Tomb, and many other incredible places. Please pray for us that every person will return home with an overwhelming desire to continue sharing the love of Jesus with everyone around us!

The Lord is continuing to bless this, His ministry, and open new doors for ministry. I am thrilled to be able to share with you some of that now:

We just received word from Taiwan that 2 of the students that accepted Christ during our Week of Prayer in March will be baptized shortly. Several other students are studying the Bible. Praise the Lord! Please pray for these precious young people, that the Holy Spirit will continue to work in their hearts and lives. And pray for their families, that as a result of their witness, they will also come to know Jesus!

Less than 2 months ago, I had the opportunity to go to Cuba for a short tour of concerts during Easter Week. As you know, I've been to Cuba many times before to continue to further the projects that support God's work, but this was my first concert tour. We had 5 concerts and a number of string workshops for anyone in that respective community/city interested in attending. This was also the first concert tour I've ever done in Cuba. Needless to say, it was an unforgettable experience!

On the personal side, it was very gut wrenching to see, over and over and over again, to see the miserable conditions in which people live. Over the last 2+ years, since the US government began to open things up, while some money is trickling in, the Cuban government is taking the majority of it, and is strengthening its grip on the island. Everywhere I turned, I saw people in desperate conditions. And it is my conclusion that things are going to get worse before they get better. If they get better. I was happy to be able to take diapers, toys, and baby food and formula for a newborn in our family. The simple things I brought them can never be obtained in Cuba. The joy in the eyes of the parents when they saw the few things I had for them was indescribable!

I also found out that one of my cousins, who is a medical doctor and only 27 years old, has been diagnosed with cancer. I solicit your prayers on her behalf. Because nutrition is so poor in Cuba, people's health can break down and deteriorate easily and quickly. The Cuban government boasts (and Michael Moore triumphantly and disingenuously reported on how Cuba has) free healthcare, but when I took my dad's cousin to the hospital, their equipment was broken down, and the medicines she needed could only be found in the USA. This is the experience for most people in Cuba when they go to the hospital. However, if you are a tourist, you have access to excellent healthcare.

On the spiritual side, I received much encouragement and great joy! Despite the challenges everyone faces, I saw a hope and trust in Christians that did not exist in those that don't know Jesus. The faith and confidence believers have in the Lord is AWESOME! As we visited towns and cities near (and far) from Havana, people would come from hours away, not knowing how (or if) they were going to get home that night, because they wanted "to rejoice in the Lord and take in the spiritual feast that had been prepared for them".

I personally met with some of the lay missionaries that YOU have helped sponsor. I saw some of the Bibles that YOU have helped purchase.

As a result of our 5 concerts and workshops, 52 people accepted salvation and requested Bible studies, and 255 recommitted their lives to Jesus. Praise the Lord for these souls and new creatures in Christ! Our first concert was in the town of Vueltas, not more than 45 minutes from the city where I was born (Santa Clara, in the Province of Villa Clara). The concert was supposed to start at 7:30. At 6:10, the electricity went out suddenly and suspiciously.

This is something that "mysteriously" happens often when special church gatherings and programs are about to take place. Immediately, we prayed and asked for God to restore power, if it was His will. People were coming from near and far. They kept coming, and many of them said they had faith God was going to fix the situation. We had prepared everything beforehand, so now all we did was wait on the Lord. And the Lord showed His mighty hand.

At 7:30 exactly, the electricity returned, and shortly thereafter, we began the concert!

A gentleman came from the last town where my family lived in Cuba- La Esperanza, which was about an hour away from Vueltas. He said he remembered me playing the violin as a boy, and when he heard about this concert and heard the name "Jaime Jorge", he just knew it had to be the same boy. I can't say I remember him, but I was overjoyed that he'd be willing to come that distance, asking for rides (along the streets and road) to the church and then back home, to be able to see the "boy" he had heard nearly 35 years before!

When people invited us to their humble homes, they would prepare with love and pride, and offer us with joy, the very food that was meant to feed their family. At every stop people would bring humble gifts for me to take home. What little they had, they were happy to share with us.

As we went from church to church, and put on workshop after workshop, we saw the Holy Spirit at work, touching the lives of people! No matter how simple the venue, how antiquated, outdated or seemingly nonfunctional the equipment was, people would find a way to make it work, and God reached the hearts. I would like to thank the organizer of the tour, brother Emigdio González, Secretary of the Missions Board, along with the rest of the team, pastor Karell, Lázaro, and the churches, for the opportunity to return to my native country to support God's work, and serve the people. There's even talk of putting on a concert in the next year or two at the Teatro Martí to reach government officials, foreign dignitaries and unbelievers. The Teatro Martí is the equivalent of The Kennedy Center or The Lincoln Center here in the USA. Please keep this possibility and amazing opportunity in your prayers.

I thank you for your support, and for partnering with us to make all this possible for the glory of God, and I ask that you continue to pray for us as we use music and testimony to reach people for Christ all over the world!

And lastly, I want to give you an update on our Healing Music Festival.

Remember I let the rabbit out of the box when I gave you a sneak preview back in March? Well, all the plans are in place: July 28 (6 PM) & 29 (3 PM & 7:30 PM) we are going to have Fernando Ortega, The Martins and Selah in concert for our inaugural Festival. This will be a weekend you will not want to miss, if you live anywhere close to the Chattanooga area. And the proceeds from these concerts are going for a project that I am and have been excited and burdened to start up. I will tell you all about the details in our next newsletter! If you would like more info on any of these concerts, please visit www.jaimejorge.com/healingmusicfestival

GUEST MESSAGE

Evelyn González has known Jaime since the early 1980's when her husband Frank was attending Andrews Theological Seminary and Jaime, the child prodigy, was already aweing audiences not only with virtuoso violin play, but, with a love for God and faith in Christ remarkably mature beyond its years.

Since 2001 Evelyn has been handling booking and promotional responsibilities for Jaime's frequent concerts and globetrotting travel, as well as putting together the ministry's quarterly e-newsletter.

The Gonzalezes are proud, empty-nest parents of three grown children, Sergio (a Hope Channel host and producer), Benjamin (a therapist who specializes in autistic children) and Bianca (an executive at a major pharmaceutical company).

But the González full family picture would not be complete without including the bubbling, joyful and loving presence of their two loyal dogs, the Boxers, Pau and Kobe, who love it, as the rest of the family, when Jaime comes calling.

Jaime, Hello sir, You probably don't remember me. You came and played at -- -. Your music and story really touched me. I also was in the process of quitting smoking so I bought a yellow (Healing Music) wristband to help me. Well, I wore that bracelet daily and every time I looked at it it was a reminder "No smoking"! I am now successfully 50 days smoke free. My stop date was 10-22-16. God spoke to me and helped me to walk over, buy the bracelet and quit.

As of Jan. 25, 2017 I start #1 of my 4 surgeries. I honestly can't thank you enough for your story and music. I watched you play and sat thinking "if" I had been able to stick with it I could have been that good, but God had other plans (with my hearing).

Again please keep playing and sharing and come back. Thank you. I'll be 37 in Feb. & didn't truly think a while ago I'd make it this far. Prayers needed and I will return them. Praise God. Thank you. M

Thank you for your e-mail! Currently I'm in college studying Graphic Design. I'm a musician, and play the violin like yourself. I have been playing the violin for about 10 years. I had two teachers, but now I'm teaching myself, which is a challenge. I'm also an artist- I have a passion of drawing pictures to the glory of God.

I have truly been blessed by your music and your ministry. Every time I listen to your music you just make me feel inspired to keep going with playing the violin and to not stop and to help me get involved with using my gifts and talents to bless others at church functions, and sometimes other events. I'll share with you a couple of my sample artwork. Continue with your ministry Jaime for the glory of God. Blessings. T

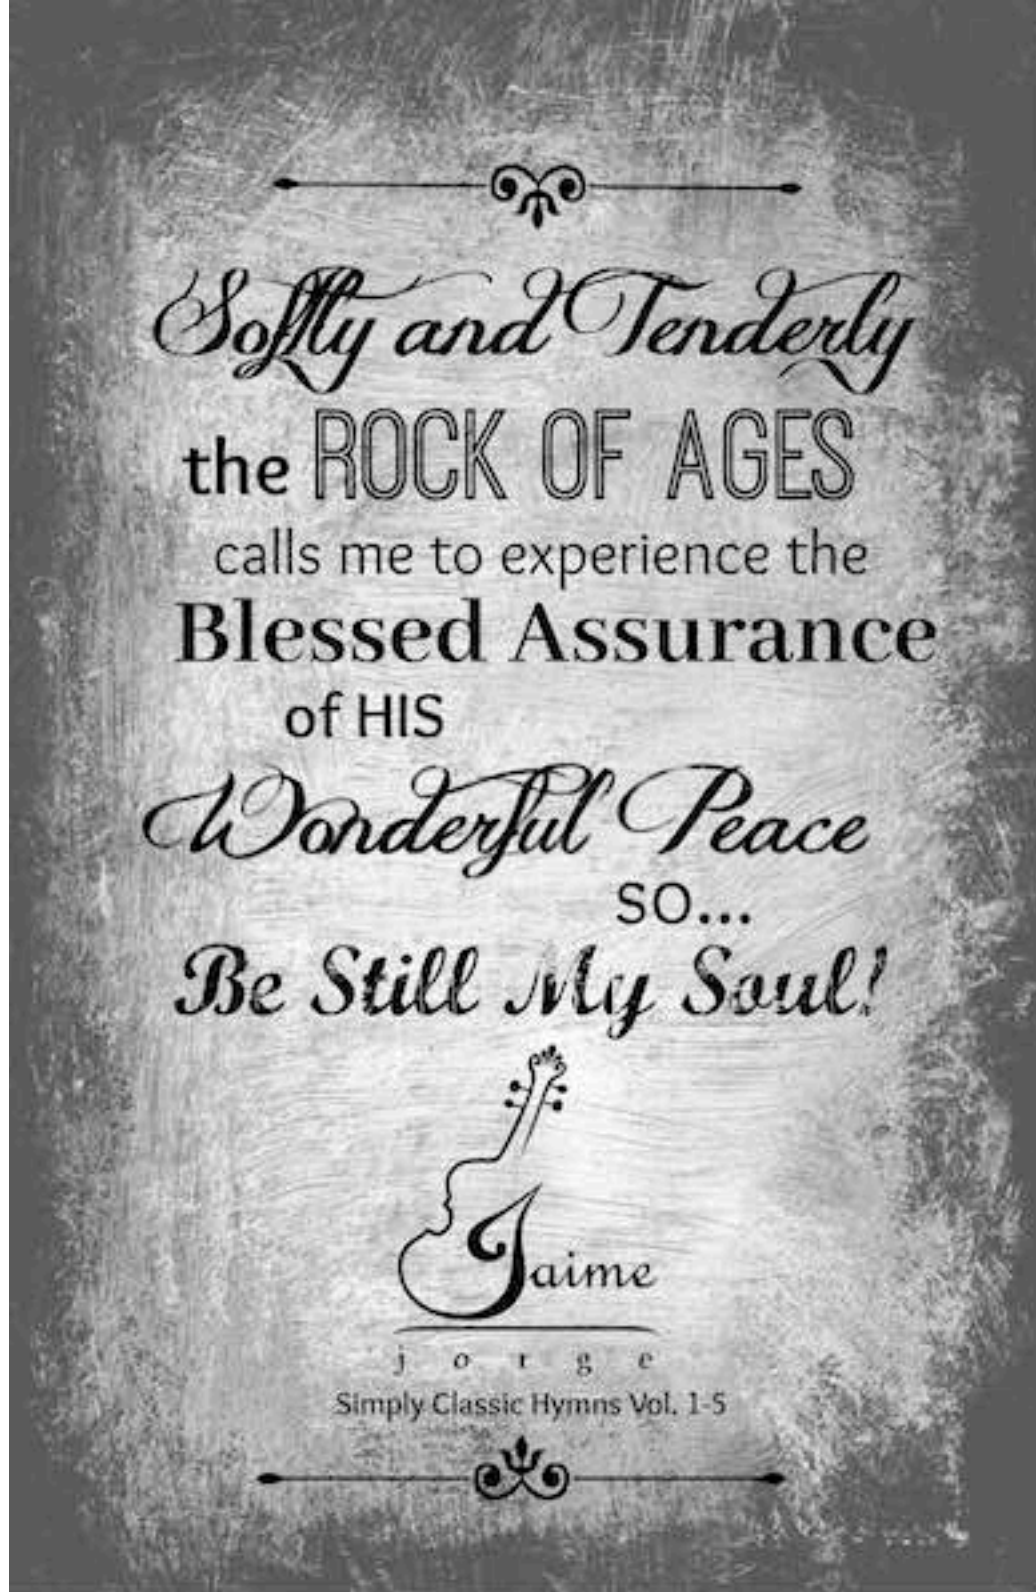

This e-mail was sent by a young lady that attended one of Jaime's concerts in Cuba during Easter Week (in April):

Hello brother Jaime. I hope you and your family are doing well. If at all possible, I would love to have the sheet music of the songs on your CDs. I want you to know that I have learned to play one by ear, by deciphering your notes and runs, and memorized your arrangement little by little. I wish you could hear me play it! I am so grateful to the Lord that He put you in my path. I wasn't sure the kind of music I wanted to play, and when I heard your music and testimony, the path became clear- I want to dedicate my life to sharing my God-given talents with others to glorify His name. I want everyone I play for to experience the same thing I experienced when I heard you. It was truly a gift from God!

Thank you for offering to send me a set of strings. If you could also send me some rosin, it would be very helpful. These things are nearly impossible to find here. Thank you for everything.

I wish God's richest blessings for you and your family. May you continue to fill people's hearts with God's love and goodness. Lorena

Our newest resource is hot off the press! An 11x17 poster. Kim had a great idea: to use the titles of our 5 classic hymns albums to create a message pointing people to Jesus Christ! There are so many posters promoting cars, hollywood movies, featuring scantily clad models, that we want to create a resource that can hang proudly in a young person's room or door and have a positive, encouraging, and spiritual message. It's only $5. But it's available ONLY at Jaime's concerts, as we're not yet equipped to ship it. Please come out to one of our concerts, worship our Lord and Savior, and grab this as a special gift to a young person (or yourself)!
