JAIME'S CORNER

On behalf of my queen Rachelle, our dedicated and hardworking JJMI and Healing Music team, Kim, Evelyn, Heather, Nelson, Kristi, Elias, Janelle, Matt and Darlene, as well as our furry child Aria, I want to wish you, your family and loved ones a blessed Spring 2019, and for God to bless and use you in a powerful way this year!

As I write this, I am in Russia for the last part of a missionary concert tour to Ukraine and Russia with pastor Peter Kulakov, who invited me last year to join him on this trip. We've had 9 presentations in 7 days, and we have 4 more to go in Russia. I'll share more information shortly, but I ask you to please pray for these final 4 programs, so that God's Spirit would be poured out at these events, and many will come to know Jesus Christ!

As usual, I have LOTS to share with you, so here we go.

Some updates:

1- I asked you to pray for our webmaster Kristi, back in December. She had had open heart surgery, and had experienced some complications. By God's grace, she has recovered fully and is doing well. Praise God!

2- Last year in June's Newsletter, I shared with you the story of Lissette, the young lady I met in 2003 that had been born with cerebral palsy, and despite her challenges, she had brought 27 people to Jesus. I reconnected with her in 2018 and thanks to a number of supporters, we began taking care of her needs. She's going through some difficult challenges, and we are trying to set things up so that she can be fully looked after. Please pray for her!

3- Just a couple of days ago, I learned that a dear friend of mine was diagnosed with cancer, and the prognosis is not good. Please pray that God's will be done in this situation, and that if it His will, there would be complete healing! God is able.

4- I ask for your prayers about an upcoming invitation. What God has done is so amazing, that it's been difficult for me to comprehend. In fact, this is so meaningful and significant, that I am not yet ready to share it with you. But I ask that if this is something God wants me to do, that He will open the doors for me to be able to do this. Please keep this in your prayers. I hope to reveal this in June's Newsletter.

Let us continue to pray for one another, and support each other! If you have prayer requests, please share them with us. Our ministry prays weekly for the prayer requests we receive!

2 important happenings in our ministry:

1- Our June 2-11, 2019 pilgrimage to the Holy Land , and 3 day extension to Jordan  (June 11-14) "In the Footsteps of Jesus by Word and Song" has 8 remaining spots open. If you are interested in this life-changing experience, please respond to this e-mail requesting the brochure, and we will send it right away. Airline fares are the cheapest they've been since July 2018, so this is a great time to sign up. I don't expect them to stay at these prices for long. See our "Featured Product" section at the bottom for more details.

2- It has been 9 years since I recorded/released a new studio album (Rock of Ages, Simply Classic Hymns Volume 5). And so we've decided it's long overdue! We are planning to record an album of classic praise & worship music. The great, spiritually uplifting songs that we know and love, even for those who aren't into the newer songs as much :)

Thanks to my friend (and one of the most talented musicians I've ever known and worked with) John Stoddart, who knows (and has worked with) everyone who's anyone in music, we have a jaw-dropping lineup of guest musicians that will be participating and doing duets with me on some of the songs. These amazing musicians include:

- Take 6
- Kirk Whalum
- Legacy Five

- Drew Cline of Newsong
- The Oakwood University Aeolians

Instead of borrowing the funds for this recording (and having to take a long time to pay them back), we have started a Kickstarted campaign to raise the funds. But I'm not asking for donations. We have created a list of rewards categories for different amounts. For instance, you can choose to pre-order your album, or you can pre-order a limited edition CD autographed by a member of Take 6 & Legacy 5, along with Kirk Whalum, Drew Cline, John Stoddart, the director of the Aeolians, and yours truly :). You can also sign up to get a package of goodies including a limited edition T-shirt with the album cover. There's also a category for a private concert at your home, etc.

The way the Kickstarter campaign works is that, if we reach our goal, we get all the funds; but if we don't, we don't get any of it and everyone gets their money back. We have about 40 days left before our campaign ends.

This is a pretty big project. Would you consider being a part of this project by signing up for one of these categories? Every participation is extremely important. And if everyone in our e-mail list simply signed up for the $15 category (the entry-level one), we would more than raise the funds to record this album this summer. Thank you SO MUCH for your consideration! (You can find the link for our campaign at the bottom of our Newsletter in the "Featured Product" section.)

A passion and focus of mine at JJMI and Healing Music is to use music to do evangelistic/missionary concerts. This is a very effective and powerful way to reach people, especially those who may not be as interested in coming to church to hear a sermon. I have done these kinds of concerts all over the world, and the Lord has blessed tremendously, with hundreds of people coming to Jesus Christ, and perhaps thousands establishing a connection with local churches for Bible study and follow-up. So when I was approached by Dr. Peter Kulakov, long time pastor and Director of Light of Hope TV ministries last year about coming to Ukraine and Russia for 2 weeks to do outreach, I was more than excited.

I had been to Ukraine (as well as Hungary, Romania, Austria a Czech Republic) with my friends pastor Jerry Kidd and pastor Jeff Franks) before, and we had had tremendous success reaching people doing evangelistic concerts. In these countries, people have a high level of appreciation and love for classical music and the violin, so it's a natural fit to come here and share. Plus, since my violin plays (and speaks) in every language, I have a huge advantage over poor singers who are limited sing in English (or another language) and people don't understand what they're saying, unless they know the words. And so we began to prepare for this trip. I should say, Peter began to plan for this trip! Dr. Kulakov is of Russian-Ukrainian descent, and his father and grandfather were both sent to the gulags in Northern Kazakhstan (father) and Siberia (grandfather) for years for the "crime" of preaching the Gospel. He has a tremendous fervor and passion for reaching the people of Ukraine and Russia, and organizes several trips and activities here every year.

When he told me our trip would be the last week in February and the first week in March, my heart sank a little bit. I was in Russia around this time in 1993, and I had NEVER been so cold in my entire life. On our free day back then, I walked around Arbok Street in Moscow doing some souvenir shopping. By the time I had walked a couple of blocks, my feet were so frozen, I couldn't feel them and was limping from not being able to plant them properly as I walked. I had to go into a Baskin-Robbins, of all places, to stand next to a floor heater to warm up my feet. But I knew I'd pack really warm clothes to avoid such suffering this time!

The plans were made, and the tickets were purchased. I'd fly into Kiev, and we'd travel by train to Lisichansk (southeast Ukraine) and begin our tour in Sieverodonetsk. We'd travel across and throughout Ukraine, cross into Russia, put on several events there, and then I'd return home flying out of Moscow. Going to Ukraine does not require a visa, but going to Russia does.

Because I had a trip planned to Cuba at the end of January, I couldn't send off my passport to obtain the visa until I returned (from Cuba). I returned February 7, the flights to Kiev were on the 20th, so I had 12 days to get the visa. An expedited visa takes 3 days, so we weren't concerned.

But then I received a text message from Peter that he had just heard that expedited visas were taking up to 18 business days (24 calendar days). We were concerned, but we began to ask our Almighty God to work on our behalf. The churches in Russia and Ukraine were praying. I asked friends and family to pray, and I posted on my Facebook page asking for prayer. The churches I visited for concerts the weekend of Feb. 8-10 also prayed.

Thanks to Heather, our new Office Manager (Kim is in school full-time and in her last semester doing clinicals, so please pray for her), who had the incredibly elaborate, detailed and frankly fastidious visa application ready, I arrived home on February 7, gave her the passport, and she overnighted it on the 8th. At one of the churches I was at (Eugene, OR) that weekend, a lady came up to me after the concert and said "I'm praying that you won't get the visa in 3 days as the service advertises, but in 1 day, so you don't have to worry". I marveled at her faith, because at the moment I didn't have as much (faith) myself.

The passport arrived in Washington, DC on Monday the 11th. On Tuesday I received a text message requesting permission for the processor to modify the application. On Wednesday it was submitted. On Thursday I received another text message saying that my visa had been process, and on Friday (the 15th), the FEDEX envelope with my passport and visa arrived first thing in the morning. As I looked at the timeline, in essence, the visa had been processed in 1 day! The lady with great faith had her prayer answered! We serve a holy and powerful God indeed!

Since last Friday, Peter and I have had presentations in:

Sieverodonetsk (2)

Kramatorsk (2)

Mariupol

Odessa

Kiev

Kharkiv

Every evening, we begin with a concert and testimony, and then Peter brings a powerful word from the Lord. Every event has been blessed by God, and hundreds of people have come to each program. Below are some pictures.

About to cross into Russia

My heart is full as so many people have come to hug me, some with tears in their eyes, thanking us for the blessing of sharing Jesus with them. The people here are absolutely precious, and even though they don't have much, they have showered us with flowers and gifts. Some of these gifts represent a week's wages for them!

We have 4 more events left:
Tonight, March 1 in Belgorod
March 2 in Moscow
March 3 in St. Petersburg
March 4 in Kaliningrad

By the time we are finished, we will have traveled by air and land 18,153 miles, having reached more than 6,000 people. Please pray for Ukraine and Russia. There is such great need here for Jesus. People are hungry to learn about Jesus. Christ said in Matthew 9:35 "The harvest is great but the laborers few". Not all of us can go to Russia, Ukraine, or other faraway countries. But ALL OF US can do something for Jesus! Thank you for helping us to reach many for Christ! May God bless you as you spread the Good News!

With love,

Jaime, Rachelle and Aria

GUEST MESSAGE

Slavs seek God through the ears and eyes of their soul. Logic and reason will try to figure it all out later. This is why I approached Jaime about a year ago with an invitation to join me on a mission tour of Ukraine and Russia. Honestly, I had my doubts that he would agree to the insane schedule of ten evangelistic meetings in ten cities in ten days. Jaime did not even blink. His answer was instant and passionate, ‘Yes, I’ll go’.

I’m writing this from Odessa (February 26). We have not yet covered even half of our itinerary, but we have already met over fifteen hundred people who came to the meetings. Every night Jaime’s violin is bringing heaven down to earth. His sincere testimonies combined with uplifting music are preparing hearts for the Word of God. In the vast post-communism territory of Eastern Europe people are fed up with slogans and propaganda. They are hungry for spiritual food.

Jaime’s music and his personality make Christianity real. People set aside their fears and worries and eagerly respond to the Word of God. They need hope, and Jaime’s violin and his warm personality are emitting this eternal hope.

We still have over 4,000 kilometers to cover by trains, planes, and automobiles while here. New cities and new visitors are ahead of us for the next seven days. Your prayers and your support keep us moving forward.

Dear Jaime and team,

I was thrilled when I received my t-shirt for the Masada climb. Jaime was so encouraging that 26 people decided to try it, which is many times more than any previous tour. The color was perfect and the layout well designed. I was glad that the Jaime Jorge logo was included. I'm sure those wearing the t-shirt will bring positive attention to Jaime's ministry.

Kim should be commended for her determination to finish this wonderful project in a timely manner. I am enclosing a check for the costs and some more for the ministry. I am wearing the t-shirt as I write and it fits just right. As God has blessed us, so we bless you with this donation to fund the shirts.

I am ever inspired to keep practicing the violin daily along with Jaime's downloads, so that I may bless others by sharing His music with those on beds of sickness and in hospitals as well as at church services. Since returning from the Israel tour, I have been able to play twice for church services in the area.

Again, I would like to thank Kim for sending me many accompaniment tapes and songs as well as for her patience throughout the project. I never thought the t-shirts would look as good as they do when I offered to sponsor them.

May God bless this inspirational ministry.

Your friends and supporters,

Dennis & Claire

Jaime,

I talked to you after your concert tonight and you asked me if I could email you the testimonial I shared. Here it is.

Almost eight years ago my wife was in the hospital to give birth to our oldest daughter. In the birthing classes we took they told us to bring soothing music to play in the room. We brought the Jaime Jorge CD's we had and played them constantly. During our entire stay all of the nurses would find any reason to come into our room. We were told by one of the nurses the reason they enjoyed coming to our room so much was largely due to the fact that it was the most soothing with the music we had playing.

Thanks for your Ministry,

Robert

Hi Jaime, we just wanted to tell you how much we enjoyed your performance and message this past Sunday at Covington Wesleyan Church. I know your time was limited, but we enjoyed meeting you and your wife Rachelle.

I also came to the United States at a young age (12) from Germany, and had hurdles to climb that seemed at times impossible. I look back now as a Christian thinking how different things could have been in my parents only knew the Lord. Although your message as a familiar one, it just seemed to make me think more about what I could do for others by lending a helping hand, or by witnessing to someone that is lost. I did both today! I cut the neighbors' yard and witnessed to my friend in Florida that has been struggling with alcohol addiction.

I do want you to know that I didn't do these things to make myself feel good. It's because these folks needed help and encouragement, and as Christians, it is our great privilege to help and bless others! This is what it's all about.

Phyllis and I look forward to seeing you in the future and will continue to follow you online.

Your friends in Christ here in North Carolina,

Tom and Phyllis

Hello Jaime!

It was such a wonderful experience to see you perform, and to finally meet you! Thank you so much for the DVD gift you gave me for my birthday! I shared with you how The Lord re-called your name to me while I was in prayer about what to do with my career. After decades of studying, performing, touring, etc- God called me to use the talent He gave me to glorify Him and bring people to Christ. I have to admit that I was scared; filled with doubt and resignation, although I so badly wanted to do what He was calling me to do.

I've only recently (after almost 7 years) begun to walk in His plan for my music. I practice listening for His voice, and His music, and am willing to be a vessel for Him to flow through.

I admire your journey and obedience to Him. Your work for The Lord is awesome and inspiring. I hope to be able to meet you again and learn from your experiences in following the path He put before you!

With gratitude and excitement,

Shelby
