JAIME'S CORNER

On behalf of my queen Rachelle, our dedicated and hardworking JJMI and Healing Music team, Kim, Evelyn, Glenn, Nelson, Kristi and Elias, I want to wish you, your family and loved ones a wonderful Fall, aa well as a blessed rest of 2017!

I want to ask you to join us in praying for our nation, and indeed the world. Over the last few weeks, we have been rocked: by demonstrations of hatred, violence, racism and sin in Charlottesville, VA; by Islamic terrorism in Barcelona; by the destruction wrought upon Texas (and possibly Louisiana) by hurricane Harvey; and the potential devastation by upcoming hurricane Irma. Let's not forget a rogue, unpredictable dictator in North Korea threatening to unleash nuclear chaos. Indeed, everywhere we turn, there is bad news. I am reminded of Matthew 24:6-7 that says: "And you will hear of wars and rumors of wars. See that you are not troubled; for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet. For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. And there will be famines, pestilences, and earthquakes in various places." Let us come together as brothers and sisters in the Lord, and be united in representing Jesus to the world. He is our only hope!

There's much to share with you, so let's get to it! We praise the Lord for the opportunity and privilege to serve Him, and we are grateful for your support in taking the Gospel around the world!

Just over a month ago, we had our first Healing Music Festival. Over the course of 26 hours, we hosted 3 fantastic concerts: Fernando Ortega, The Martins, and Selah. Hundreds of people attended each concert, and were blessed beyond measure! Folks from 6 different states (that we're aware of) came to be a part of our event. We were all refreshed, encouraged and challenged to continue serving the Lord with our talents, energies and resources!

As usual, we could not have done this without the selfless dedication and help of many people! Dwayne Kingry, Kim's husband, took unpaid time off from work to design, set up and put together the stage and lights. He and Caleb (Kim's son) climbed on the roof of our host church to tape plastic runners over all the windows of the church (quite a project).

A big thank you to the Collegedale Community Church family and staff (especially pastor Tom Hayes) for letting us their facilities, and providing support!

Our A/V team- Juan Madrigal, Dwayne, Caleb and Dustin Johnson worked SO hard to make everything go perfectly and without a hitch!

Our beautiful stage was designed by Kim, Dwayne and our friend Laura Herren.

These precious young people are just some of the more than 25 volunteers who directed people to their seats, organized traffic and parking, helped the artists, made sure everything flowed smoothly, and so much more!

A special thanks to Sean Pitts, Joey Tolbert and Darlene Hubbartt who were at every concert working a myriad of details.

Fernando Ortega made us feel like we were right in his living room!

The Martins were amazing Their heartfelt and personal stories encouraged and touched many!

We had nearly a full house for Selah's stirring and powerful concert!

We PRAISE the Lord for such a blessed weekend! And this weekend would not have occurred without the incredible work that Kim did. We are so thankful to the Lord for everything she does for the ministry. Many of you have talked to her on the phone, and you know a little bit of how wonderful she is. Please pray for us that we can bring her onboard full time. As we are growing, we really need her help. Also, keep her in your prayers as she goes back to school the next 2 years to finish her degree.

We are planning our second Healing Music Festival for next year (July)! We will be announcing the list of artists soon. Would you join our page on Facebook?: <https://www.facebook.com/Healing-Music-Festival-345444029186873/?fref=ts>

And would you consider coming to the Chattanooga area next year to be a part of the Festival?

Now, if you remember the last newsletter, I told you I would share with you the purpose of starting Healing Music Festival. Here goes: As the Lord has blessed and you have dreamed with us and supported Healing Music, we have been growing. In addition to supporting God's work in Cuba, Nicaragua, India, and here in the USA, the Lord put in my heart to do ministry right in our backyard: Chattanooga. Our city has a poverty rate higher than 30%, and the Lord said to me "are you going to be a light unto the world and a darkness in your backyard?" I was shaken by God's impression. And so I began to think and pray as to what we could do to incorporate music ministry in reaching people for Christ. The Lord impressed me to go into the inner city, and provide instruments and lessons to children, so they can not only learn music and develop their talents, but learn about Jesus and dedicate their talents for the glory of God.

And so we are starting this project THIS MONTH! We are going to start with 10 1st & 2nd graders. We will provide all the violins, music, accessories, etc. (We are tentatively calling this mission "Hope Through Music"; if you have any other suggestions, please let us know). We have a dedicated teacher, Janelle Glass, that will give them an individual and music lesson every week. Then, as they grow and improve, I will be contacting the area churches to invite these young musicians, as individuals and as a group, to come to their church, play special music, and spend time with the church family. Please pray for these precious children, that the Holy Spirit will bless them, and they will be mighty servants of Christ.

Our goals are that 1- they will perform at next year's Healing Music Festival, 2- encourage and bless many people and 3- that we will be able to add another 10 children to our outreach next year.

Because this was our first Festival, we did not accomplish our goal of raising enough money to fund this project for a whole year. We have seed money, and we're running with it. Please pray that the Lord will provide the funds necessary to keep this going the rest of this year and next, and that we'll be able to add more children to our missionary project!

The last thing I want to share with you is a very meaningful story, and one that demonstrates the power of our actions. What we do can have meaningful, powerful and long-lasting consequences.

Back in 1987, I spent the summer in Long Island, New York, doing an internship in a Summer Camp headed by my friend, pastor Dan Pabón. Just a couple months before, while at an orchestra rehearsal at Roosevelt University in Chicago (where my family lived), I had had a seizure, fell forward and off my chair, and crushed my violin into a thousand pieces. My parents had made a huge sacrifice and paid $1700 to purchase a violin for me. It wasn't insured, so now I had nothing.

When my friend pastor Dan found out, he began to talk to some of his friends and asked them to help by donating funds so I could purchase another violin. Among the friends he contacted were 2 brothers: Anthony and Fino DeFranco. They were very active in church, and had a passion for Christ. Immediately, they responded in the affirmative, and made a significant contribution. I didn't have a 501(c)3 foundation, and they didn't receive a tax deduction or benefit. They did it because they felt impressed to do so.

As a result of their generosity, as well as the support of others, I was able to purchase a beautiful Carl Becker & Son violin, which I still have today! And as the rest of the story goes, this violin has gone around the world playing music that glorifies God, and has helped bring people to the feet of Jesus (if there was a violin heaven, even though it's not a Stradivarius, mine would definitely be going!).

This past June, I was in Old Westbury, NY, for a concert at Tony DeFranco's church. It was a moving experience for me to see him and his lovely wife Sharon, as they continue to be pillars of their church. Tony and Sharon continue to support our ministry to this day. Below is a picture we took after the church service.

May the Lord continue to bless Tony and Sharon as they continue to serve Christ the King of kings and Lord of lords! And may God continue to bless YOU and your family as you serve the same King! Remember that your acts of love can impact someone for eternity!

With love and joy,

Jaime

GUEST MESSAGE

As much as I enjoy music, you will typically find me behind the computer screen. I take care of Jaime's website and make sure that it's up and running with the most current info and products available!

I've been working with Jaime and crew for the past several years and when I joined the team, his website already existed and he just needed someone to help him with the back-end. That led to some technical updates to help with digital downloads and eventually, we completely redesigned the website! It was a ton of fun and I loved getting to know Jaime and Kim more through the process.

I always feel like God leads in every path of life, and I am so thankful for Jaime and his team and connecting us through a mutual close friend years ago.

I only personally met Jaime for the first time at a concert he played at my parents' home church early Spring this year. I had seen him in concert several times growing up. Having worked with him, this concert was so much more special. I was captivated by his story-telling and my 4-year old son, who just started taking violin lessons this past November, was in awe of Jaime. He talked about his alligator children's story for weeks and always referred to "playing like Jaime" some day every time he pulled out his violin to practice. What an incredible impact Jaime has on people of all ages!

In addition to our 4-year old son, my husband and I also have a daughter who just turned one in May. Between the two of them, I'm kept quite busy! I look forward to continuing to improve your experience on www.JaimeJorge.com. May you continue to be blessed by his love for humanity and musical talent.

God Bless,

Kristi

My husband and I attended the Fernando Ortega and Selah concerts. We have been fans of both for many years and are always amazed and blessed by the Lord's presence through the gifts of voice and music.

We were also delighted to hear Jaime for the first time and love the passion and perfection displayed through this worship experience. His heart (as well as Fernando and Selah's) for ministry is evident and the gifting of the Lord is obvious.

Thank you for putting together a wonderful event and for providing an opportunity for others to become involved in the inner city music project.

We will be honored to help spread the word to our Church and friends for next years concert.

Blessings,

Rhonda

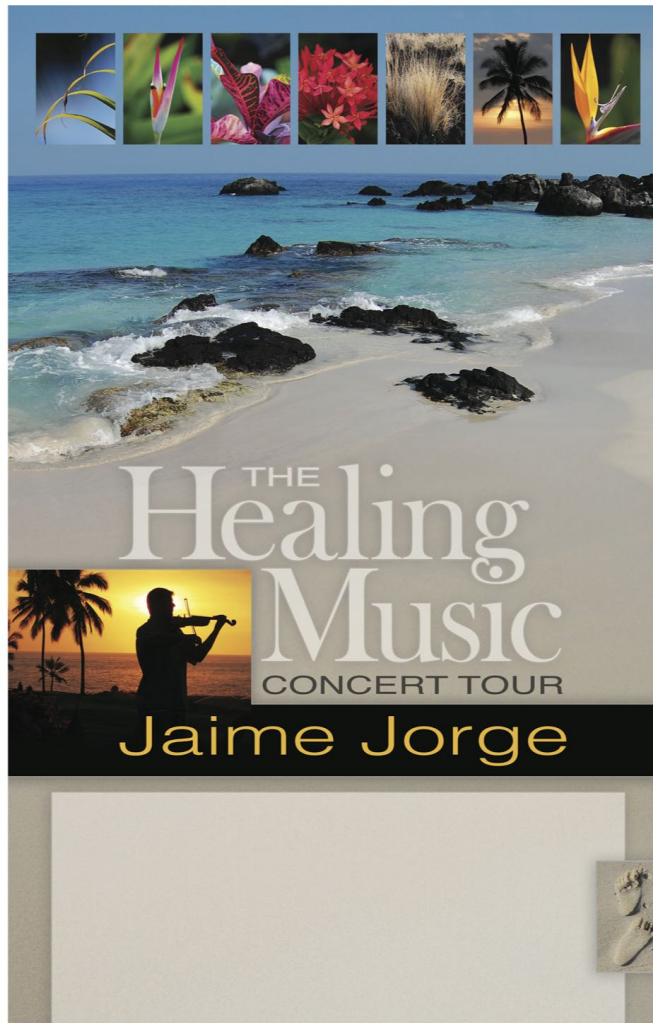

Kylee graduated from High School and played "Adoration" at the worship service... She said that after your playing that song at the - Church (Bay Area, CA) and playing with her at your concert, it inspired her to continue violin lessons and ultimately playing that song for her recital and the church service. Thought you'd want to know what harvest has resulted from the seed you planted. May God continue to bless your ministry. I have a video of that performance. I will send you a link so you can watch it.

Dear Jaime Jorge,

Thank you for coming to our area (Portland OR) in the fall of 2016. Our names are Timothy (age -), and Tapo (age -). We both play the violin, and we are brother and sister. We love listening, practicing, and playing along with your CDs at home. We want to ask some questions. How long do you practice each day, and what is your favorite song to play? We enclosed $2.00 for your ministry, Healing Music. We look forward to your next concert in our area. Our favorite of your songs, A Mighty Fortress, Standing on the Promises, and Down the Via Dolorosa.

Loving Music,
Timothy and Tabo

Our newest resource - an 11x17 poster. Kim had a great idea: to use the titles of our 5 classic hymns albums to create a message pointing people to Jesus Christ! There are so many posters promoting cars, hollywood movies, featuring scantily clad models, that we want to create a resource that can hang proudly in a young person's room or door and have a positive, encouraging, and spiritual message. It's only $5. But it's available ONLY at Jaime's concerts, as we're not yet equipped to ship it. Please come out to one of our concerts, worship our Lord and Savior, and grab this as a special gift to a young person (or yourself)!
